

Job Vacancies – Tubedale Consulting

Principal Consultant

Tubedale are looking for candidates to fill principal EPM consultant roles.

With a focus on selling and managing the delivery of high-profile engagements in Portfolio Management and the overall Microsoft EPM solution, candidates should have a good depth and breadth of experience of project management activities and specifically in toolset consultancy.

International experience and a background in a financial services and/or blue-chip organisations would be beneficial, as would a second European language.

Tubedale Communications Ltd is an Equal Opportunities Employer